While still below peak levels reached in 2015-2016, Arizona exports to Mexico have had Y/Y gains in the last six months.

AZ EXPORTS TO MEXICO

the average $ value for latest three months, Feb-Apr 2019, is up 0.3% from the average for the previous three months, and is up 10.3% from a year ago.

COMMODITY FLOWS TO/FROM MEXICO VIA AZ BPOE

Commodities travelling via Arizona BPOE continued recent gains, despite a downward trend since 2014.

FRESH PRODUCE VIA AZ BPOE

the average $ value for latest three months, Feb-Apr 2019, is up 37.6% from the previous three months, and is up 9.0% from a year ago.

U.S. fresh produce imports from Mexico via Arizona BPOE experience seasonal fluctuations that look volatile. Annual fresh produce trade volume remains relatively consistent.
Regardless of near-term declines, persons crossing the Arizona-Mexico border continue an upward trend since recession-related declines that bottomed out in 2012.

Vehicle border crossings (personal vehicles+buses+trucks) dipped in the last half of 2018 and early 2019, ending a steady increase since 2012.

The peso appears to have improved its value somewhat since the beginning of the Obrador Administration in December 2018.
